Hi Jesse and Martha,

Any updates on these? They're looking for us to either pay them or return the product.

Also, Synergy has provided a copy of the AD's packing slip and a sample T3. We have an order of theirs which is going through our new due diligence checklist and Abbie is verifying all T3 documents prior to anything being received. Since we have never had an issue with a Synergy product is there any reason to not continue business as normal if all additional due diligence items are completed? We now have $3mm in backorders and would like to start filling those ASAP. Thanks!

CB

Good morning,

These are additional invoices provided by Rapids Tex. They stated that the NDC for BIKTARVY was deleted and reentered incorrectly on the first redacted invoice they provided. Could you please take a look at this and see if there was anything else that stood out to you?

Thanks,
